So it was determined in the negative; and the bill was therefore rejected.

On motion by Mr. Goldsborough, the house proceeded to consider the bill, reported by him, entitled, An additional supplement to an act for amending and reducing into system, the laws and regulations concerning last wills and testaments, the duties of executors, administrators and guardians, and the rights of orphans, and other representatives of deceased persons; which had been made the order of the day for the 2d instant. And in the progress of the second reading thereof,

On motion by Mr. Nicholson, the first section of said bill was amended by striking out the word "April," in the second line thereof, and substituting therefor, the word "June."

On motion by Mr. Chapman, the farther consideration of the bill was postponed, and it was ordered to be laid upon the table.

Two several messages were this day received from the senate, by their clerk, returning the bills and resolutions, that were sent from this house, of the following titles, to wit.

An act to divorce Henrietta Hewitt, and her husband, William Hewitt, of the city of Baltimore; and,

An act to divorce Lucinda D. Lusby, and her husband, Thomas R. Lusby, of the city of Baltimore, severally en-
